Mr Gulhaider Zaidi E-91, Sector-50, Noida Gautam Budh Nagar District Uttar Pradesh 201301 INDIA

18 March 2020

Dear Mr Zaidi,

I am delighted to welcome you as a Fellow of the Royal Asiatic Society.

I have pleasure in enclosing information on using the library, a copy of the Society's Byelaws and an Obligation Form. I would be grateful if you could sign and return this form at your earliest convenience. I also enclose a selection of the Royal Asiatic Society postcards with our compliments.

Founded in 1823, the Society has consistently encouraged the dissemination of research and scholarship about Asia. Its purpose remains as urgent and determined in the early twenty-first century as it was to our founders in the early nineteenth century. Being elected a Fellow of the Society commits you to helping us in this endeavour.

In order to follow what the Society is doing, I hope that you will enjoy the annual programme of lectures and seminars and that you have signed up to receive the blog.

If you are not able to come to a particular meeting, most of our lectures can later be heard through a podcast, accessible through the Society's website.

As a Fellow, you receive a copy of the Journal (published continuously since 1834) enabling you to monitor the current direction of research in the many disciplinary fields embraced by the Society. Your first issue will be sent to you in due course. You may also purchase the Society's other publications at a discount.

The Society has an amazing collection of books, manuscripts and art - much of it donated during its first half-century and now of incalculable value for understanding the rich cultural heritage of Asia. As a Fellow you are welcome to use the library and to borrow certain categories of book.

Since 2006, the Society has been in its own premises in Stephenson Way. I am sure you have already visited the Society's rooms and know, therefore, how conveniently it is located. Within minutes of mainline and underground stations the Society is within easy reach of the British Library, the British Museum, many institutions of London University, and the hive of activity centred on Bloomsbury. The Society welcomes use made of the premises by Fellows and others, and is able to offer rooms for hire for meetings and conferences at very competitive rates.

The annual subscription (which the Society aims to keep as low as possible: if you had been elected in the 1820s the annual dues would have been three guineas - approximately £250 in today's values!) enables us to meet about a quarter of our income needs each year. We derive similar sums from our modest portfolio, from rental from use of the building, and from our publications. In 2007 the Society embarked on an ambitious fund-raising project aiming over a number of years to increase our endowment reserve to £5 million and to seek recurrent financial support for particular purposes such as improving our facilities, cataloguing our collections to modern international standards, conserving our heritage items and making them more accessible through digitisation and publication. Any help you could give to this effort is greatly valued: donations from Fellows, enhanced in value if 'Gift Aided' over and above the annual membership fee, are particularly welcome. I enclose a copy of our Fundraising brochure.

This is a splendid time to be a member of an independent learned society that seeks to increase understanding of the complex histories and cultures of Asia, not least because Asia now bulks so large in global affairs. I hope you will engage fully with the Society's work and enjoy the privileges of being a Fellow.

Yours sincerely

Professor A. J. Stockwell President

Hi Mufti Taha Shah,

We are delighted to inform you that you are being recognized as the Bhaskar Scholar of Global Governance Initiative - given that you were shortlisted by GGI on merit based full scholarship for its prestigious Masterclass.

Only the top 3% of the Shortlisted Delegates are being recognized as Bhaskar Scholars- named after Dean Bhaskar Chakravorti (Advisor at Global Governance Initiative) of the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy. Dean Bhaskar was formerly a partner at McKinsey and Company, and faculty member at Harvard Business School.

Our hope is that you will also use this honor as a platform to be an ambassador for GGI's interests and give back to the larger community so that more students can avail similar opportunities.

Dear Mr. Shah,

I am happy to inform you that you have been selected for the J N Tata Endowment loan scholarship for your higher studies abroad during 2021-2022. Congratulations!

Please convey your acceptance of the loan scholarship by sending an email to jnte@tatatrusts.org, using your registered email ID, by Wednesday, 21st July, 2021. If the J N Tata Endowment does not receive your acceptance by Wednesday, 21st July, 2021, your loan scholarship award is liable to be considered as withdrawn.

You are requested to coordinate with the Endowment through email for completing the necessary formalities for the release of the loan scholarship amount. You will need to schedule an appointment as the process takes time.

The amount to be awarded by way of the loan scholarship is determined on the basis of the norms laid down for the purpose and will be finalised after all the required papers are submitted. Please note that any queries regarding the amount of the loan scholarship will not be entertained over the phone or by emails. If there is a change in the University from the one you have informed us earlier, the award will be conferred at the discretion of the Endowment.

Established in 1892, the J.N. Tata Endowment is a prestigious institution. It is a matter of pride to be called a 'J N Tata Scholar'. Over the years J N Tata Scholars have distinguished themselves and have had outstanding achievements to their credit.
