Dear Dr Frank,

I am happy to inform you that you have been selected for appointment as temporary Lecturer in Chemistry in St Stephen's College on a basic pay of Rs.740/- per month with the usual allowances with effect from 7 August 1981, in the Pay-scale of Rs.700-40-1100-50-1600 for a period of one year. However until the approval to the higher start of pay given to you is received by the College from the University of Delhi, you will be paid Rs.700/- per month.

This appointment is subject to the approval of the University and the University Grants Commission.

In case you want to resign your post in St Stephen's College, you would be required to give one month's notice or forfeit one month's salary in lieu of notice. If the College does not require your services, you will be given one month's notice or salary for that period in lieu of notice by the College.

I hope you will enjoy being with us in St Stephen's College.

You will be governed by the rules and regulations in force in College, from time to time, for academic staff. I hope you will be willing and happy to do such work as is given to you in College.

Please let me know if this offer of appointment is acceptable to you on the terms and conditions stated above.

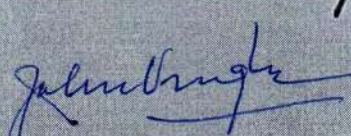

With every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr Frank,

I am happy to say that you have been selected for appointment as Lecturer in Chemistry in St Stephen's College, in a permanent vacancy, with effect from today, the 22nd of September 1983, on a basic pay of Rs.780/- per month with the usual allowances since you have been working in College with effect from 7 August 1981 in the pay-scale Rs.700 - 1600. You would be on probation for a period of one year with effect from 22 September 1983. The date of your annual increment would be the same as it has been so far. During the period of probation, you would be expected to give one month's notice, or lose salary for the same period if no notice is given. Likewise, if the College decides to terminate your service, you will be given one month's notice or salary for that period in lieu of notice.

This appointment is subject to the approval of the University and the University Grants Commission.

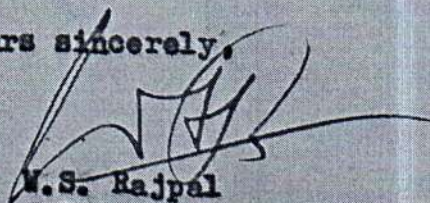

I hope that you would enjoy being with us in St Stephen's College and would make substantial contribution to the total life of the College.

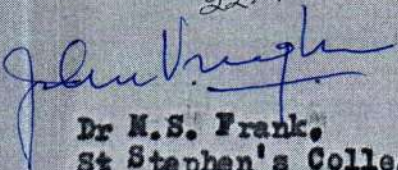

You will be governed by the rules and regulations in force in College, from time to time, for academic staff. You are required to sign an Agreement of Service for Teachers appointed in St Stephen's College on a non-judicial Stamp Paper of the value of Rupees Two, by 15 October 1983. I would expect that you would be willing and happy to do such work as is given to you in College.

Please let me know if this offer of appointment is acceptable to you on the terms and conditions stated above.

Dear Mrs Chopra,

I am happy to say that you have been selected for appointment as Lecturer in Mathematics in St Stephen's College in a permanent vacancy with effect from the opening day of the academic session 1939-90, on a basic pay of Rs. 2200/- per month, with the allowances permissible under rules, in the pay scale of Rs. 2200-75-2800-100-4000. (You are entitled to another increment.) This appointment is subject to the approval of the University and the University Grants Commission.

You will be on probation for a period of one year which may be extended to two years. During the probation, you would be expected to give one month's notice, or lose salary for the same period if no notice is given. Likewise, if the College decides to terminate your services you will be given one month's notice or salary for that period in lieu of notice.

You will be governed by the rules and regulations in force in College from time to time, for academic staff. You are required to sign an Agreement of Service for Teachers appointed in St Stephen's College, on a non-judicial stamp paper of the value of Rs. 2/-, by 10 August 1939. I would expect that you would be willing to do such work as is given to you in College.

Please let me know as soon as possible if this offer of appointment is acceptable to you on the terms and conditions stated above.

I hope that you would enjoy being with us in St Stephen's College, and would make a substantial contribution to the total life of College.
