

Group Discussion Session – Civil Services Forum

Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

The Civil Services Forum, St. Stephen's College conducted a Group Discussion Session under the 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav' on 17 September 2021. The Group Discussion which was open for all students from various institutions was held on the topic 'Role of Civil Services in Nation Building' and saw a participation of about 9 students. The moderators for the same were Anandita Tewari, 3rd year GD coordinator and Kshitij Jain, 2nd year GD coordinator.

An open discussion on the different facets of civil services in nation-building, including their historical basis in India and their role in the development of state institutions, took place throughout the event. The attendees also discussed the role of civil services in the post-liberalisation age, which was particularly intriguing. Students discussed the issues that modern bureaucracy faces, as well as strategies for making it more effective and efficient. The Group Discussion came to a close with each member expressing their thoughts on the reforms that are needed in the civil service as well as their personal experience of the Group Discussion.
