

Weekly Prompt Competition - The Fine

Arts Society

Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

The Fine Arts Society regularly holds 'Weekly Prompts,' a small competition conducted every week, with the aim of motivating and encouraging budding artists while building a supportive student community. To celebrate Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Society conducted a Weekly Prompt Competition based on the theme of 'Independence and Freedom.'

The Weekly Prompt Competition was held on The Fine Arts Society WhatsApp group from 9th to 15th August, 2021. Each participant was required to submit one entry. There were no limits on the type of medium. The entries were judged by Maria Reji, President of the Fine Arts Society 2019-20.

The competition was won by Irene Mariah, III B.A. Economics, St. Stephen's College.

Two more entries were submitted by participants outside St. Stephen's College. One was by Azka Khan, a 12th grade student from GHS/AMU, Aligarh. The second submission was by Aishwarya Madan Mohan, Kamala Nehru College.
