

Essay Writing Competition – Civil Services Forum

Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

The Civil Services Forum on the 27th October organised an Essay Writing Competition in collaboration with SIDBI which is the apex financial institution for the promotion, development and finance of micro and small industries in India. It is under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Finance, Government of India. The topic was Independent India @ 75 keeping in mind the celebrations of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav. Out of 25 considerations, the winners were as follows:

1. Ms. Anushka Dasgupta, St. Stephen's College (First Prize)
2. Ms. Aarushi Sharma, Jesus and Mary College (Second Prize)
3. Ms. Aliya Shajahan, Vivekananda College (Third Prize)
4. Mr. Anush Pilodia, St. Stephen's College (Consolation Prize)
5. Ms. Vidhi Jain, Kalindi College (Consolation Prize)

The competition was a tremendous success in ensuring that the students were forced to think and analyse how far the country has come after its freedom struggle, and how development has taken place.

CIVIL SERVICES FORUM
IN COLLABORATION WITH SIDBI
(MINISTRY OF FINANCE, GOVT. OF INDIA)
IS ORGANIZING
ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION
UNDER 'AZADI KA AMRUT MAHOTSAV' AS PART OF THE VIGILANCE AWARENESS WEEK CELEBRATIONS.
CASH PRIZE WORTH 10,000 INR+
TOPIC: INDEPENDENT INDIA @ 75: SELF RELIANCE WITH INTEGRITY
OPEN TO ALL DU UNDERGRADS! SWIPE TO KNOW MORE
SASHWAT PANDEY (+91 91709 02099)
SIMRA SIDDIQUI (+91 99533 65387)
Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav
Send your entries to civilservices.eso@gmail.com latest by 20th October, 11:59 PM

Reported by – Sagarika Chaudhary (The Media Cell)