

The Beats of our Republic: An Audio Production – Sabha, The Multilingual Theatre Society

Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

Sabha — The Multilingual Theatre Society of St. Stephen's College, as part of the 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav,' released an audio production titled 'The Beats of our Republic,' on the 73rd Foundation Day of our Constitution. The audio reminisces the bravery and valour of Indian leaders as they struggled to achieve freedom from the British rule and establish a democratic nation. India is a place of contrasts, not just in terms of languages, faiths, and cultures, but also in terms of sounds. India's various sounds are both its strength and its defining characteristics. They are emblematic of our country's ethos. Beautiful phrases from Rabindranath Tagore's Gitanjali were translated into numerous regional languages and were featured in the audio. It was wrapped off with a patriotic song that commemorated our revolutionary movements to achieve freedom and rule as a free nation.

Reported by- Saumya Chandra (The Media Cell)