Photography cum Artwork Competition – The Photography Society and The Fine Arts Society

Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

The Photography Society in collaboration with the Fine Arts Society organized a Photography cum Artwork Competition under the banner of Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav for Photography and Art enthusiasts to showcase their talent. To celebrate the spirit of freedom and inclusiveness, there were no restrictions imposed on the criteria.

The competition was held on the theme 'Monuments and Landmarks of significance to the Independence Movement' and 'Freedom/Independence' spanning from 10th to 20th January. The competition was open to all the students pursuing their Masters/Bachelors in the Delhi University. The Photography competition ended on 15th of January whereas Artwork competition ended on 20th January. Each participant was supposed to submit one entry for both the Competitions. The Artworks submitted by the participant were inspired by the photographs clicked by the photography participants. The winners were declared on 26th of January.
