

Colours of Patriotism – Social Service League and The Fine Arts Society

Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav

The Evening Classes vertical of the Social Service League and The Fine Arts Society organised the event 'Colours of Patriotism' in collaboration with each other. The event comprised two online google meet sessions conducted by two volunteers each from both societies.

The Fine Arts Society volunteers hosted an interactive painting/sketching activity related to the greater theme of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav for the Evening Classes students. Their aim was to nurture children's artistic abilities while simultaneously inculcating patriotic sentiments in the class.

The first session took place for students of classes I-V on 21st August, 2021 at 5PM. Ishita Pundir, volunteer and Executive Council Member of The Fine Arts Society, taught thumb painting to the kids. They were guided to paint a scenery using the tricolours. 10 students participated in this session.

The second session was conducted for students of classes VI-XII on 28th August, 2021 at 5PM. Susanna Daniel, volunteer and Executive Council Member of The Fine Arts Society, instructed this session which included origami and painting. The students learnt making peacocks and wall hangings out of paper in the colour of the Indian flag. It was attended by 19 students.
