

Anjum Chopra Inducted into the ICC Hall of Fame

St. Stephen's College is delighted to congratulate Anjum Chopra (B.A. Hons. History, Batch of 1995–1998) on her induction into the ICC Hall of Fame, one of the highest honours in international cricket.

A trailblazer for women's cricket in India, Anjum represented the country with distinction over a career spanning more than a decade and went on to captain the Indian Women's Cricket Team. Beyond her achievements on the field, she has made significant contributions to the sport as a commentator, author, broadcaster and mentor, continuing to shape the future of cricket in India.

Her induction into the ICC Hall of Fame is a fitting recognition of an exceptional career defined by excellence, leadership and an unwavering commitment to the game.

As one of the pioneers of women's cricket in India, Anjum helped lay the foundations for the remarkable growth and global recognition that the sport enjoys today.

The St. Stephen's community takes immense pride in celebrating this distinguished achievement. Anjum's journey exemplifies the values that the College seeks to foster in its students—integrity, perseverance, courage and the pursuit of excellence. Her accomplishments continue to inspire generations of Stephanians and young sportspersons across the country.

The College extends its warmest congratulations to Anjum on this richly deserved honour and wishes her continued success in all her future endeavours.
