

Society Activity Report 2018 – 2019

Japanese Society

Film Screening : Your Name

Date: 26th September, 2018

Venue: College Hall

Japanese Society had a screening of the 2016 Japanese blockbuster “Kimi no Na Wa (Your Name)” in the college hall on the 26th of September, 2018. The movie was written and directed by Makoto Shinkai, and deals with the melancholic coming of age tale centered around teenagers Taki and Mitsuha.

THE JAPANESE SOCIETY

St. Stephen's College
presents

君の名は。
y o u r n a m e .

highest-grossing
anime film of all time

written and directed by Makoto Shinkai

26.9
COLLEGE HALL
2 PM

Origami Workshop

Date: 26th October, 2018

Venue: Room B

On 26th October, 2018, the society organised an origami session where students were taught how to make paper cranes, boxes and rabbits. [Origami: It is the art of paper folding, which is often associated with Japanese culture.]

The poster is for an origami workshop. At the top, it says 'THE JAPANESE SOCIETY' in green, followed by 'St. Stephen's College presents' in a smaller green font. The main title 'ORIGAMI WORKSHOP' is in large, bold, yellow letters. Below that, it says 'OCTOBER 26TH ROOM B' in green. The schedule is listed as 'Session-I(3-4pm): Box & Crane' and 'Session-II(4-5pm): Rabbit & Crane' in yellow. At the bottom, it states 'MATERIALS WILL BE PROVIDED' and 'ON-SPOT REGISTRATION' in green. Contact information for Naomi (8826960677) and Kento (8826963585) is at the very bottom. The background features colorful origami cranes and a teddy bear.

Informal session with Mr. Naotuki Haraoki

Date: 21st November

Venue: Seminar Room

Mr. Naotuki, editor in chief as well as Executive Managing Director of The Japanese Economic Foundation, studied at Tokyo University and Princeton University. He is also a former Chief Executive Director, JETRO-San Francisco; former METI Training Institute Director. He also edits Japan Spotlight. Students interacted and heard Mr. Naotuki's enriching knowledge and experience in various dimension of the Japanese advancing media, economy etc.

Movie Screening: Grave Of The Fireflies (1988)

Date: 24th January, 2019

Venue: Seminar Room

Japanese Society had a screening of the movie "Grave of the Fireflies (1988)" on the 24th of January, 2019 in the Seminar Room. The film tells the story of two siblings, Seita and Setsuko, and their desperate struggle to survive during the final months of the Second World War.

Lecture by Ayumi Sano on “How to produce and sell a Japanese TV Serial”

Date: 22nd February, 2019

Venue: Internet Resource Centre (IRC)

Director Ayumi Sano from Tokyo Broadcasting Systems presented a lecture on how to produce and sell a Japanese TV Serial. The lecture took place in the IRC on the 22nd of February. Ayumi Sano was the recipient of Elan d'or Awards 2018 for Best Producer and Best Drama “Quartet” and the Tokyo Drama Awards 2017 for Best Drama “Quartet”.

 THE JAPANESE SOCIETY
ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE

A Lecture by Movie Director Ayumi Sano on “How to produce and sell a Japanese TV Serial.”

TOKYO BROADCASTING SYSTEM
Former Floor Director
TV Drama Producer (Present)

Elan d'or Awards 2018 for Best producer & Best Drama “Quartet”

Tokyo Drama Awards 2017 for Best Drama “Quartet”

IRC
22nd Feb '19
2:00pm onwards

Talk by Mr. Yasunori Tashiro

Date: 25th February, 2019

Venue: Seminar Room

Mr. Yasunori Tashiro presented a talk on “Fostering Global Citizens At Soka University Through Compassion, Wisdom, And Courage” on the 25th of February in the Seminar Room. He is the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees at Soka University.

The Japanese Society
St. Stephen's College

THE JAPANESE SOCIETY

“FOSTERING GLOBAL CITIZENS AT SOKA UNIVERSITY THROUGH COMPASSION, WISDOM AND COURAGE”

*Mr. Yasunori Tashiro
Chairperson, Board of Trustees
Soka University*

SOKA UNIVERSITY

2:00pm | Seminar Room | 25th Feb, 2019

Matsuri 2019

Date: 29th March, 2019

Venue: SCR Lawns

The society organized its first ever annual festival "Matsuri" on the 29th of March, 2019. The fest consisted of an extravaganza of events put together to showcase the vibrant Japanese Culture. It included events like cosplay extravaganza, musical performances, shokuji, beyblade, tabemomo (food tasting) among many others.

THE JAPANESE SOCIETY

ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE

Tabemono: A Tasty Tasting

Experience sweet treats and savory delights from Japan.

Kokonattsu Sabure, Kantorii
Maam, Rumando, Eliize,
Prittzu and lots more!

MARCH 29, 2019 | 3:30PM
ROOM B

Contact:
Naomi: 8826960677
Angie: 8415984369
Chenti: 9205009693

THE JAPANESE SOCIETY
ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE

Invites cosplayers for a

COSPLAY EXTRAVAGANZA

MATSURI
Cultural Festival

SNACK TASTING | MUSICAL AND DANCE
PERFORMANCES | QUIZ ON ANIME & JAPAN
SHOGI WORKSHOP | KIBASEN
AND MORE..

1:30PM ONWARDS | MARCH 29, 2019
SCR LAWNS, ST.STEPHEN'S COLLEGE

Please register online at www.thecollegefever.com/events/matsuri-annual-festival-of-the-japanese-society

