

Society Activity Report 2019-2020

Fine Arts Society

Orientation: The year began with the Orientation, which was conducted on August 8th, 2019, to provide the incoming batch with an overview of the many verticals and features of the Society.

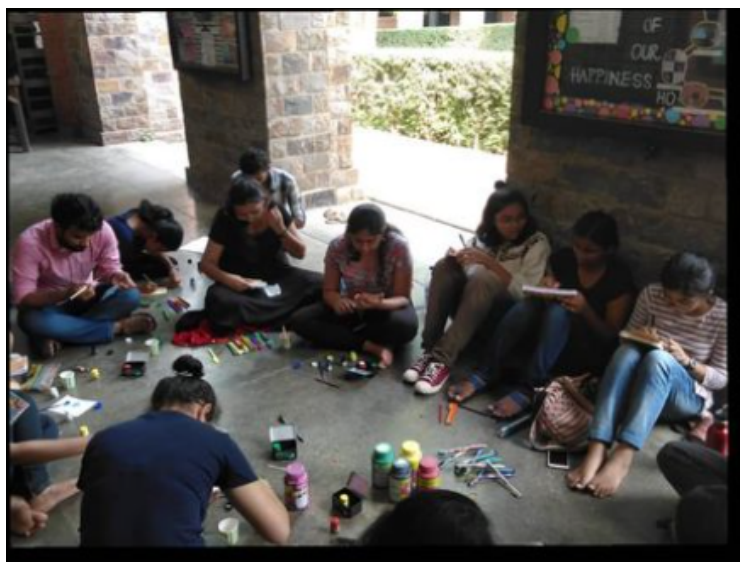

String Event : On August 26th, 2019, the Society hosted a pulled-String Art event called 'No Strings Attached'. This was followed by a String Art Exhibition on August 28th, 2019, which showcased the pieces created in the event.

Find an Outlet, Paint a Postcard: The Fine Arts Society also conducted 'Find an Outlet, Paint a Postcard' on September 16th, 2019 in collaboration with the Mental Health Initiative. Like minded artists came together to spend an afternoon painting blank postcards.

Kullhad Painting Competition: In addition, the Society hosted the Kullhad Painting Competition on October 28th, 2019 as part of its Art Week'

Origami workshop: On the 29th of October 2019, an Origami workshop was conducted in collaboration with the Japanese Society.

Spoken Art: Spoken Art, an interactive, fun session mostly to illustrate poetry, was held on October 1st, 2019 in collaboration with the Poetry Society. This was an open event that allowed us to learn about people's artistic interpretations of poetry.

Community Art: Community Art sees an assemblage of many views on the same piece of art, which began with its Exhibition on October 1st, 2019, and ended with its major event on October 31st, 2019.

Art Walk at the National Crafts Museum: On October 2, 2019, The Fine Arts Society anticipated conducting an Art Walk at the National Crafts Museum. It was, however, canceled due to rising pollution levels in New Delhi.

Live Sketching Event: A Live Sketching Event was held, on the Chapel lawns, on February 2, 2020.

