Dance Performance - Voices

- 'Voices', a contemporary piece put up by INCEPTION, the thematic choreography team of the society was conceptualised and directed by the members of the team. It was an adaptation of 'The story of an hour' by Kate Chopin. The performance depicted an individual's id and superego which are at odds with one another and ego that tries to balance the two forces through the story of a woman who lost her husband.

Collaborations

- The society collaborated with the Sanskrit Academy and in October, a team of 8 members of the society performed a 10-minute Semiclassical piece for the Sanskrit Event held at Connaught Place.
